

Sinclair Broadcasting is obviously attempting to influence the election. They are major contributors to the republican party and they are making illegal contributions by using our public airways to air known lies, which have already been debunked.